There'll always be an England
Ross Parker, Hughie Charles.

chorus
\( N.C. \)
\( F \quad A7 \quad Bb \quad D7 \quad G7 \quad C7 \)

There'll always be an England while there's a country lane where

\( F \quad A7 \quad Dm7 \quad G7 \quad Gm7 \quad C7 \)
ever there's a cottage small beside a field of grain there'll there'll

\( F \quad A7 \quad Bb \quad D7 \quad G7 \quad C7 \)
always be an England while there's a busy street where always be an England and England shall be free it

\( F \quad A7 \quad Dm7 \quad Bb \quad F \quad Gm7 \quad C7 \quad F \)

Fine
ever there's a turning wheel a million marching feet Red

\( A \quad Interlude \quad E7 \quad \overbrace{A \quad E7}^{3} \quad A \quad E7 \quad A \quad E7 \quad \overbrace{A \quad E7}^{3} \)
white and blue what does it mean to you surely you're proud shout it aloud Britons a

\( A \quad \text{G7} \)

wake

\( C \quad G7 \quad \overbrace{C \quad G7}^{3} \quad C \quad G7 \quad \overbrace{C \quad G7}^{3} \quad C \quad G7 \quad \overbrace{C \quad G7}^{3} \)
Empire too we can depend on you freedom remains these are the chains nothing can

\( C7 \quad \text{D.S. al Fine} \)
break there'll